

Product Update Marketing Copy

Got a newsletter going out? We've written some short copy to appeal to end users and provided the images you need to drop into your comms plans asap.

New simplified section controls

Your website updates just got more efficient. Enjoy new simple appearance and layout section controls. Select the buttons to the left of your content and style away in seconds.

New responsive typography

Your customers can sit back and relax with new responsive typography. Your website text now automatically resizes based on the device you're on for more comfortable reading.
